

MR. O'CONNOR'S $500,000 GIFT
Archbishop Announces Blessed Sacrament Foundation

Most Rev. J. C. McGuigan, Archbishop of Toronto, has address a letter to the public press in connection with the recent gift to His Excellency of $500,000 by Mr. Frank P. O'Connor. "I wish to thank Mr. O'Connor," writes His Excellency, "for his princely munificence to works of charity and religion in his unusual gift of $500,000 entrusted to me for distribution. It is a shining example of true Christian charity and generosity which has been applauded by his fellow-citizens in Canada irrespective of creed. I appreciate very deeply and am grateful to him for giving me, as his Archbishop, the pleasure of acting as his almoner to the many worthy causes already designated. Donations of various gifts have been made to many public institutions and the work of home and foreign missions has been definitely aided. An outstanding feature of the gift is the establishment of the Frank P. O'Connor Blessed Sacrament Foundation at St. Michael's Cathedral, Toronto. Through the generosity of Mr. O'Connor it is our hope to make the Cathedral of St. Michael the centre of fervent devotion to the Most Holy Eucharist, and from this religious centre to promote the love of our Divine Lord throughout the whole diocese.

"The Frank O'Connor Blessed Sacrament Foundation will also be a public testimony of the generosity of the donor and perpetuate his name and generosity to future generations."
